Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street...
The verdict handed down by the coreser's jury in the inquest held yesterday ever the body of the negro Walter Overtion, shot and killed by Officer P. T. Watts, was that he had been "shot while fleeing." This was to the effect that the negro was shot while attempting to escape arrest.

negro was shot while attempting to escape arrest.

This would seem to imply that the act was justifiable, inasmuch as the officer was in the performance of his duty when the act occurred. If this be proved, it is stated that little difficulty will be encountered in clearing Mr. Watts of all guilt.

Mrs. Kidd Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Kidd, wife of Mr. W. P. Kidd, of West Cary Street, Richmond, occurred at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Meade Memorial Church. A touching hymn was sung by Captain Frank Cunningham, and the choir rendered that old and familiar song, "Asleep in Jesus."

Mrs. Kidd was held in the highest honor and esteem by 'all, and there were many present to view the last sacred rites over her body. The pall-bearers were A. D. Smith, J. T. Trevillan, J. Z. Walker, Charles Watkins, W. J. Ahern and A. Nennamaker. The honorary pall-bearers were B. P. Owens, T. H. Betty, J. R. Wheat, R. K. Barnes and Nelson Powell. Mrs. Kidd, before her marriage, was Miss Jennie Munn, daughter of Mr. George Munn, of Chesterfield county. She leaves her father, three brothers and one sister—Messre. George Munn, Jr., Jacob and James Munn and Mrs. John Lipscomp.

Bazaar Well Attended.

Bazaar Well Attended.

The bazaar given this week by the lades of Asbury Church was well attended last night, despite the many signs of inclement weather. Miss Eula Bailey, of Church Hill, was the central figure of the evening's programme. Miss Balley, who was trained by Miss Thurston, of Richmond, rendered several selections, among them being "Cremona," which took the audience by storm.

It is not known yet what the proceeds will be, but the ladies are working hard to get enough to pay off at least a part of the building fund.

CLAIMS THAT DOG IS PERSONAL PROPERTY

Much Vexed Case Between Stockraised and Owner of Setter.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch. SHAWSVILLE, VA., June 23.-Quite a nice point in law is being contested here between a live stock raiser and the owner of a valuable bird dog. It seems that the dog killed a lamb and the stock raiser declared the dog should pay the penalty with his life. The owner of the dog offered to pay all damages and send the fered to pay all damages and send the dog out of the State. This did not satisfy the stock raiser, and a trial before a justice ensued, resulting in a verdict that the the dog should be killed. The defense thereupon appealed the case, and if he loses in the lower court will take it to the Supreme Court on the grounds that his dog is assessed at $50, on which he pays taxes, making the dog personal property.

he pays taxes, maxing the way property.

A rather ludicrous side of the case is that the stock raiser has the dog in custody, cannot kill him, and must keep him in the same good condition in which he found him until the case is finally decided. This must be months, and it may be years, The plaintiff is represented by Captain J. R. Johnson and Allen I. Harless. The defense by W. H. Colhoun—all of the Christiansburg bar. All of these gentlemen were present at the trial before the justice. It is claimed that another stock raiser has gone into the case in order to test the law on the subject. by the previous storms could be fully repaired.

The gardeners and farmers have thus sustained another heavy loss by badly washed lands, besides making very late those who will necessarily have much of their work to do over.

Judge Harrison, of the Page county Circuit Court, has just decided the Shenandoah City local option contest in favor of the "dry" people. The town, which is in the southern part of this country, voted for local option in the election of May 9th by four majority. The "wet" people immediately carried the case to the court, alleging a number of irregularities in conducting the election. By to-day's decision the last licensed bar-room is removed from Page county.

Berlin Foreign Office Announces That Note Leaves Moroccan Situation Unchanged.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 23.—An official communi ation issued after the meeting of the council of ministers to-day says Premier Rouvier acquainted his colleagues with the status of negotiations with Germany, These follow the normal course without official communication, public uneasiness official communication, public uneasiness was accentuated over the strained relations between Frances and Germany. This produced a panicky sentiment on the Bourse, where heavy offers of rentes sent down prices to the unusual figure of 97.90. Parliamentary circles also continued to show a feeling of nervousness and apprehension. This was increased by the publication in the sensational afternoon papers of maps showing the disposition of the French and German military forces along the frontier accompanied by interviews setting forth the gloominess of the situation and the belief that Gerinterviews setting forth the gloomines of the situation and the belief that Ger many's reply to the French note would increase the difficulties of the government The officials here fully recognize the condition of public apprehension, and while admitting that the negotiations are in a delicate stage insist that there is no cause for alarmist views.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., June 23.—A man claiming to be a postoffice inspector secured $6 from Mr. George E. Richardson, postmaster at Toano, yesterday afternoon, which he claimed was due for supplies furnished by the Postoffice Department. Miss Bertha Richardson, who attends to the office for her father, didn't feel satisfied about Mr. Richardson paying for the supplies, and after making inquiries became convinced that the man was an imposter. Later the man was found by Mr. A. W. Jennings, and when threatened with arrest returned the money and was allowed to go. The matter has been reported to Inspector Bulla.

Later it was learned that the same party was in Williamsburg yesterday morning, where he secured $7 from a prominent citizen on a book which be claimed to be canvassing for.

A fire occurred here yesterday evening in a barn on the premises of V. Larson, which, but for the splendid work of the fire company, might have resulted in a serious confingration. The house was surrounded by several other houses, and a lot of dry wood and other inflammable unsterlal, but fortunately the fire was confined to the building in which it started, and but little damage was done.

Mr. Robert Holmes became overheated while fighting the fire and afterwards drank a considerable quantity of ice water, which threw him into convulsions which lasted through the greater part of the night. Mr. Holmes was reported as being much better at 11 o'clock to-day.

ENGINEER'S ERROR.

W:ll Cost An Overburdened City An Extra Fifty Thousand.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 23.—Ine city of Charlotte, already facing a financial "situation," was presented with another problem this afternoon, thanks to the error of a civil engineer. When the city decided to abandon its present water shed it employed A. E. Boardman, a civil engineer thereof. The new site and estigineer to inspect the new site and esti-mate the cost of making it a permanent water shed and supply station for the water shed and supply station for the entire city. The engineer submitted an estimate of $200,000 as the outside limit, a bond issue for 210,000 was voted and work was begun on the new site. This afternoon the engineer surprised the water commissioners by informing them that it would take $200,000 to complete the station.

There was a stormy scene, the engineer admitting his error. The work has progressed to a point where it is impossible to turn back and where the additional $50,000 is to come from is a puzzler. There is already a heavy bonded indebtedness, prohibition has taken away the salcon revenue, the poil tax has been materially reduced and the people are not likely to stand for another bond issue.
